California cat shelter goes viral for sharing its hilarious 'nice or naughty' feline of the week

By Sydney Borchers | Fox News

An adoption center and cat sanctuary in Los Angeles has gone viral after launching its "nice and naughty" cat of the week series. Toni Barrett, development manager for Heaven on Earth Perry's Place, said she and her staff were inspired by a popular cat influencer on TikTok who goes by the name "Pot Roast's Mom," who would label her own cats as "good or bad" cat of the week....

Thank you all for participating in the Meowlentine fun this year!

Not only did you send over 400 Meowlentines, but every single cat at Perry's Place received a little love.
